

IT'S COMPETITION TIME ONCE AGAIN!

Let's Participate in Science Reporter's

Science Fiction & Science Cartoon Competition 2024!

- Science Reporter once again announces its Science Fiction and Science Cartoon Competitions. We invite original contributions from our readers.
- Share with us unique, exciting, innovative, futuristic science fiction stories.
- All entries — Fiction as well as Cartoon — should be the author's original creation & unpublished — attach a self-declaration saying that the contribution is original and unpublished.
- Only one Science Fiction entry per entrant. Similarly one Science Cartoon entry per entrant. The cartoons should relate to scientific topics only.
- Fiction Stories must be restricted to about 1500-2000 words. Compose write-ups in 12 pt Times New Roman, single-line spacing in MS Word Format.
- Give the following details: Name, Address, Age, Class (in case of school student), Professional Affiliation, and Email.
- Copyright of the submissions would rest with Science Reporter, CSIR-NIScPR.
- Selected entries will be published in Science Reporter.
